13. [redacted] Advised [redacted] OTR, that I had arranged for Mr. James Woolsey, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, to speak to the Intelligence Production Course on the Hill at 2:00 p.m. on 10 April. I told him we were seeking another speaker from the House for later that afternoon. Mr. Maury will speak to the group at Headquarters about 11:00 a.m.

25X1 4. [] Called Senator William Spong's (D., Va.) office in order to discuss with him the possibility of inviting to a Headquarters breakfast Senator Bellmon's (R., Okla.) group, of which Spong was a member. Spong will be out of town until the 5th. 25X1

25X1 6. [] Hand-carried to Bill Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, the Director's letter of 29 March 1972 on a Reserve withdrawal and gave him a briefing covering this withdrawal. Woodruff said he would be seeing the Chairman tomorrow and would tell him about it.

Brought Woodruff up-to-date on the latest information concerning tests of the SS-11 Mod 3.

25X1 7. [] Talked to Jim Woolsey, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and asked him if he would be willing to address a group of Intelligence Production Course trainees on 10 April on current issues before the Congress and attitudes about the Agency on the Hill. Woolsey said he would be happy to do this and suggested he give the group a 15 or 20 minute talk and reserve the balance of the time allotted to him for questions and answers. I told him I would be back in touch with him in the next day or two with more particulars.

25X1 8. [] Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and said after the membership had been polled the Chairman decided to postpone tomorrow's briefing of the CIA Subcommittee on the Agency budget since most of the members had already left town for the Easter recess. Braswell said they would try to reschedule the briefing some time next week, but it would not be 4 April.

3. [REDACTED] Met with Mr. Frank Slatinshek, Acting Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who told me that he would like to work out an arrangement with the Agency and with DIA to bring the Intelligence Subcommittee into a little better focus on intelligence. For several years DIA has briefed the Chief Counsel and the Assistant Chief Counsel the first thing in the morning on a daily basis together with the frequent and often daily fill-in on more sensitive matters by members of this office. He would appreciate our ideas on how these procedures might be adapted to the five members of the Subcommittee on a weekly or biweekly basis not only to bring them up to speed on current intelligence but even more importantly to increase their sense of participation in the community. Mr. Slatinshek did not see the briefings by DIA and this Agency, which would be separate, as being in any way competitive.. As a preliminary consideration, it is his thinking that the DIA briefing might cover programs or activities and general current information with the Agency presentations to be in the more exotic matters or covering somewhat more detail on sensitive matters than is normally covered by DIA. I told him I would explore the matter with our people and discuss it further with him later in the week.

[REDACTED]

I briefed Mr. Slatinshek on the following items: Soviet SS-11 ICBMs, and Y-class submarines; and ChiCom surface-to-air missile deployment.
